

Montilla at the Rotllan Torra stand in the Tarragona Firagost

In the Rotllan Torra stand, where we presented the new harvests of Amadis and Tirant 2004, we had the opportunity to welcome to our stand the most honourable Josep Montilla, President of the Catalan Government.

Mr Montilla took the opportunity to discover our wines and showed much interest in them.

During the meeting, he commented on the internationalisation of our wines and we were able to tell him, among many other things, that we are present in over 40 countries.

Presentation of Rotllan Torra Wines in Russia

Recently, our Rotllan Torra wines have been introduced in Russia. The presentation took place in a fine wine store in Jukkofka. This is the town where the richest people in Russia live and where they sell the best wines of the world. In the photo you can see our importer in Russia (in the centre), Anastassia, together with the owner of the store and a famous wine critic with, among others, a bottle of our Amadis.

Also present at the presentation were important figures such as wine critics, clients of luxury restaurants, oil companies etc.

Our wine was greatly appreciated by all those present.
