

Rotllan Torra at the launch of Noah Gordon's last book, The Cellar

These days the prestigious writer Noah Gordon, who has written famous novels like The Physician, Matters of Choice and Shaman, is launching his new book -The Cellar-, whose setting is a wine-growing region of Catalonia in the 19th century.

It is a great honour for us that Mr. Noah Gordon has mentioned us in the acknowledgments. We are really glad to have had the opportunity to do our bit for the edition of this book. We are sure it will be an internationally successful book, which will help the general public to know a little bit more about the wine world.

These are the acknowledgments in the book:

"In different occasions Michael and I have walked along that narrow and precarious road which goes along the edge of a valley and climbs along the side of a small mountain leading to Torroja del Priorat, where in 1984 María Ángeles Torra founded her family's winery. It is run by her two sons, Albert and Jordi. Their vineyards are near from there, some of them are planted in abrupt slopes, and some others are 100-year-old vines planted on slate soils. I'm very grateful to Albert and Jordi Rotllan Torra for reading this book manuscript".

In fact, Noah Gordon and his son Michael are very fond of our wines, especially Balandra and Amadis.

The central picture was taken in Vilafranca del Penedés last 23rd of October, when the international launch of the book took place. After the event, Jordi and Albert Rotllan had dinner with Mr. Noah Gordon.
